

INSTITUTE OF LAW, JUSTICE, AND PUBLIC SERVICES (LJPSI)

The Law, Justice, and Public Services Institute (LJPSI) teaches skills needed in law, public administration, social services, and criminal justice related occupations. The knowledge and skills learned in this program will enhance the student's opportunity for placement in entry-level jobs and/or continuing education.

Students completing the Institute Studies are able to:

- Create, analyze, and defend arguments and opinions
- Work effectively as a team member
- Write and speak effectively and proficiently
- Display effective communication skills
- Analyze problems and develop solutions
- Understand the basis for the American legal system
- Read, interpret, and discuss law

In the classroom studies include:

- Civil Liberties
- Street Law
- Crime and Justice
- Forensics/Debate
- Governmental Agencies
- Psychology
- Sociology
- Business Law
- “We the People” Government Honors

Some of the related occupations include:

- Attorney
- Court Administrator
- Criminology
- Elected Official
- FBI Agent
- Firefighter
- Forest Ranger
- Paramedic
- Parole/Probation Officer
- Police Officer
- Public Administrator
- Social Worker

Some of the areas in which students connect with industry professionals include:

- Law Enforcement
- Law Firms
- City/County/Federal Courts
- Fire Stations
- Local Government